

THE POWER OF 1%

60% of people say their 401(k) is the largest or only source of retirement savings, so why not make the most of your retirement savings account?¹

Contributions are on the rise!

In 2019, the contribution limit for a 401(k) has been increased to $19,000²

How much should you be saving for retirement each year?

Start as early as possible and increase when possible

Industry experts recommended 15% of your pre-tax income each year³

Percentages not your thing? Let's break it down...

Could you save?

5% = $5
out of every $100 Earned

10% = $10
out of every $100 Earned

15% = $15
out of every $100 Earned

What is compound interest?

Earning interest income on already existing interest income

Saving 1% more each year can make a big difference in the long run

*Approximation based on a 1%, 3%, or 5% increase in contribution. Continued employment from current age to retirement age, 67. We assume you are exactly your current age (in whole number of years) and will retire on your birthday at your retirement age. Number of years of savings equals retirement age minus current age. Nominal investment growth rate is assumed to be 5.5%. Hypothetical nominal salary growth rate is assumed to be 4% (2.5% inflation + 1.5% real salary growth rate). All accumulated retirement savings amounts are shown in future (nominal) dollars.

Your own plan account may earn more or less than this example, and income taxes will be due when you withdraw from your account. Investing in this manner does not ensure a profit or guarantee against a loss in declining markets. Investing involves risk, including the risk of loss.
